

Summary and Fact Sheet

The Ottawa Hospital Research Institute is the research arm of The Ottawa Hospital and an affiliated institute of the University of Ottawa. Incorporated as a not-for-profit corporation, its Board of Directors includes representatives from the Hospital, the University, the Hospital Foundation, and the community.

Vision:

- To achieve a position of national prominence and international recognition through excellence in research, education, and health care innovation

Mission:

- To excel in research, education, and innovative patient care, with research focused on understanding, prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of disease
 - Research encompasses basic, translational, clinical, population, and health services research.
 - Education includes training of undergraduate and graduate students, postdoctoral research fellows and clinical research fellows.
 - Innovation in health care involves development and testing of new therapeutic approaches, and innovation in the delivery of health care.

Core Research Programs

- Cancer Therapeutics
- Chronic Disease
- Clinical Epidemiology
- Neuroscience
- Regenerative Medicine
- Vision

Governance

- Ken Newport, Board Chair
- Dr. Duncan Stewart, CEO and Scientific Director

Research staff

• Scientists	103
• Investigators	344
• Students and Postdoctoral Fellows	443
• Research and Support Staff	692
Total:	1572

Revenue distribution ($87.7M)

• External Grants / Contracts / Salary Awards	84%
• The Ottawa Hospital	5%
• Indirect Costs and Investment Income	5%
• The Ottawa Hospital Foundation	4%
• University of Ottawa	2%

Facilities

- 230,000 square feet of basic and clinical research space at The Ottawa Hospital's Civic, General, and Riverside Campuses

Technology Transfer

- 10-20 invention disclosures per year
- 5-10 patents per year
- 5-10 licensing agreements per year
- Biotech spin-off companies include Coley Pharmaceutical and Jennerex Biotherapeutics.

Information on the Web

- www.ohri.ca (general)
- www.ohfoundation.ca (to donate)